Night—Meetings at Plum -
Creek and Glenwood Sunday

The campaign for the Red Cross war relief campaign to raise $10,500 will be launched from the pulpits of the county Sunday and at union meetings to be held in various parts of the county. This agreement was reached by ministers of the county when they met at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon.

No person in Rush county will attend church Sunday without hearing an appeal for the Red Cross war relief fund. Ministers of Rushville will devote at least one of their sermons Sunday to the subject.

A union mass meeting will be held at the Milroy school auditorium next Sunday night and will probably be addressed by E. B. Thomas, county chairman, and others. A Red Cross organization meeting will be held at the Plum Creek Christian church Sunday afternoon and will be addressed by the Rev. C. M. Yocum of this city. The war relief campaign will also be presented to the audience. A meeting under the auspices of the Red Cross will also be held at Glenwood Sunday night following a Children's day exercise. Judge Will M. Sparks will deliver the address. The meeting will be for the purpose of enlisting more members in the Red Cross and to make an appeal for the war relief campaign.

The township chairmen have been called in for the meeting tonight at seven-thirty o'clock at Red Cross headquarters when final organization will be completed for the big "drive" next week to raise Rush county's apportionment. The city will be districted for the ten teams who will canvass in the city. The ten members of the finance committee who are the team captains and the three members each one appointed are all expected to be present tonight to get some idea of how to present the appeal when the canvass starts.

It is expected that subscription blanks and other supplies will be ready for distribution tonight.

County Should Soon Raise
Its War Relief Allotment

(By ROBERT E. MANSFIELD)

The captains of the ten teams, composing the finance committee of the Rush County Chapter of the Red Cross, and the three assistants chosen by each of the captains, who will on Monday June 18, enter upon an aggressive campaign for the collection of $10,500.00 of Rush County's quota of the $100,000,000. Red Cross War Fund, will meet this evening at Red Cross headquarters to make final arrangements for the canvass of the city. The committees appointed in the various townships in the county to canvass their respective communities, are also invited to attend the meeting this evening, when final arrangements will be completed for the big drive to begin on Monday.

Rushville will be divided into districts, the teams into units, and

The Dr. Gilbert Sunday school class of the Main Street Christian church is doing its "bit" for the country and the allies. The class bought a $100 Liberty bond to help this country and the announcement was made today that the class had decided to be "mother" to a French war orphan for a year.

Under the plan being used by the French relief committee, organizations and individuals are asked to give money sufficient to buy food for the children for one or more years. The Dr. Gilbert class will feed a child for one year. "We thought it best to take the child for one year," said one member of the class, "because at the end of this time our own country may need the assistance." The class is composed of women.

MANY VOLUNTEERS DO WORK

Rush county citizens displayed their patriotism on the day of the registration for the selective service army by donating to the government their services at the polls and also giving free use of the voting places to the government. In only one of the thirty-one precincts of the county was a charge made for the polling place. This was made by a widow, who permitted her own home to be used and she charged the government nominal fee.

Clerk Moore has made his report to the government setting out that all of the work in Rush county was of a volunteer nature pointing out the one exception. Clerk Moore is also indebted to a number of girls and men who gave their time to helping copy the registration cards in his office.

Rush County's Roll of Honor

The Daily Republican today publishes on pages eight and nine a complete list of the 1464 young men who enrolled themselves at the military registration on June 5. The names are given by townships and precincts so that you can find your home precinct, the names of the patriotic young men of your neighborhood, without any difficulty.

The space and the immense amount of work in the composition is all donated by the Daily Republican. The names were given to the Republican in typewritten form by precincts by the county conscription board. It was the request of the government that this be done and that the newspapers publish the names free of charge. The record is official.

The names will be published but once. For this reason it behooves you to preserve the printed list for future reference. It is the patriotic duty of every person to read the list carefully, not only of your own precinct, but of other precincts as well. If you know of any slackers—young men of military age whose names do not appear on this roll of honor—you owe it to your country and to your own loved ones, if any had to register, to report these slackers to the county conscription board. The list should be saved as a matter of family pride to be handed down through the generations.

The publication of the official registration list is requested by the government for the purpose of detecting slackers. It is the best method which could be devised of hunting out the men of military age who are trying to escape their duty to their country and their flag. The purpose of the conscription law is to compel universal service and the slacker defeats the intent and spirit of the law. Every person knows some young men in their precinct of military age and they should consult the official list to see if their names are to be found on the roll of honor.

NO DISTINCTION TO BE SHOWN

Order Will Tend in no Way to Relate. Efforts Here to Bring
Company B. to War Strength

A warning to men engaged in obtaining enlistments for the regular army and the national guard not to discredit the selective draft in any way has been issued by the war department. The men have been cautioned against making extreme statements in order to make it appear preferable to volunteer rather than be forced into service.

Secretary of War Baker has sent word throughout the service to the effect that the selective draft process was to be regarded as the mode which the national government had decided on as the means of raising its principal armies, and that nothing should be done to make one branch of the service appear more desirable than another, but that emphasis should be placed on the fact that on the men above conscription age devolved the duty of bringing the national guard and regular army up to war strength.

"There are to be no distinctions between the regular army, the national guard and the forces raised by selective draft," said the statement of Secretary Baker. "Every man who wears the uniform of the United States stands on an equal footing."

The possibility that the national army might be differently uniformed had been suggested, but Secretary Baker has promptly put down every effort to make distinctions in the American forces. The armies to be raised by the selective draft will constitute the principal force of the United States in the field at the end of a year, and if the war is prolonged for two years the majority of the fighting men will have been obtained by the selective draft.

The order of the department will in no way tend to relax the effort here to bring Company B to war strength. The officers are confident that enough home pride will be displayed to fill the ranks of the company to the necessary number. The recruiting campaign is to continue as vigorously as ever and Lieut. Dillworth will be here tomorrow to examine recruits.

Lieutenant Dillworth returned to Bedford today after a few days stay in this city.

State is Oversubscribed

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 15.—The rank and file of America today, answered Uncle Sam's request for a war loan of $2,000,000,000 by giving that and probably $30,000,000 more.

Official announcement was made by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department that the loan was oversubscribed. Robert Wooley, publicity director of the campaign estimated the oversubscriptions might reach a billion dollars. The stream of subscriptions which still poured into the twelve federal reserve districts after the closing hour, are understood to mean that there are four billion dollars where these two billion came from, to be had for the asking.

Wall Street did its bit. The New York district at noon had passed the billion dollar mark.

Apparently 2,000,000 Americans made up this first purse of money for the nation. The government estimates that the average individual subscription was $1,000.

McAdoo in his statement said: "The success of this loan is a genuine triumph for democracy. It is unmistakable expression of America's determination to carry this war for the protection of American rights and the re-establishment of peace and liberty throughout the world to a swift and successful conclusion."

Secretary McAdoo announced that there was not likely to be another bond issue before next fall.

INDIANA OVERSUBSCRIBED

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Shortly after noon today officials announced that the $40,000,000 allotment for Indiana would be oversubscribed by approximately $5,000,000. Totals from the various counties are incomplete.

At the time the books were closed to subscriptions more than $39,000,000 had been tabulated and additional amounts were pouring in.

Indications today were that several Boy Scouts of Rushville would win a war medal for their activity in selling Liberty Loan bonds. To get a medal, a Boy Scout has to sell one or more bonds to ten different persons. Three or four boys have already qualified and they are now engaged in helping less successful comrades reach the necessary number of sales. One Boy Scout has secured subscriptions amounting to $2,500.

Up to last night, when a report of the day's work was made, there had been $8,000 worth of bonds sold by the Boy Scouts in Rushville alone. It was predicted today, by the way the Scouts were bringing in subscriptions this morning, that they would easily reach $10,000 today. It will be possible to announce tomorrow what boys won medals.

Mrs. Rosa Bird of near Arlington this afternoon filed suit against Hillary G. Haydon for $5,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received in an automobile accident on April 26, 1917 when the Haydon machine and a Ford driven by Mrs. Bird's husband, Thomas P. Bird, collided.

Mrs. Bird charges negligence on the part of the defendant, claiming that as the two machines approached he failed to give half of the road and in the collision that resulted she was thrown from the machine. Mrs. Bird claims to have been in bed for four weeks as a result of the accident suffering from injuries to her head, back, spine and other parts of the body. John A. $5,000 ADDED IN COUNTY

The Rush county bankers organization announced this afternoon that $5,000 more had been subscribed to the Liberty Loan here, bringing the total for the county up to $382,550.

Rush county has passed her apportionment in the Liberty Loan campaign. This was made certain today when it was announced by the Seventh Federal Reserve district, in which Rush county is included, that the county had oversubscribed its quota by 11.9 per cent.

The oversubscription was accomplished by the banks and not by popular subscription. The banks have taken the bonds according to the allotment, eight per cent of their resources, and expect to dispose of them among the people of the county. The mere fact that the banks of the county have subscribed for their share does not mean that the people of the county have discharged their obligation, the bankers say.

The purpose of the Liberty Loan campaign, that the bonds be taken up by the people, would be defeated, bankers point out, if they held most of the bonds. Furthermore, it is shown, there will be other bonds issued to be taken up later and the bankers can not subscribe for all of them because it will be impossible.

According to the announcement in Indianapolis for the sixty-nine counties of the state in the Seventh Federal Reserve district, Rush county's allotment is $337,360 and she has subscribed $377,550, which is an oversubscription of $40,190. Subscriptions of $357,550 were reported by the county bankers organization yesterday and today $20,000 more was added. The extra $50 is not accounted for here.

At the beginning of the campaign the bankers were told by the Seventh Federal Reserve district that the county allotment was $337,360, which was supposed to be eight per cent of the resources of the banks of the county. Later in the campaign other reports were received so that the bankers organization was not exactly certain what was expected of Rush county until it was definitely announced at Indianapolis the apportionment was $337,360 and that Rush county had oversubscribed.

Of the sixty-nine counties in this reserve district, twenty-nine have reached or surpassed their allotments and forty are under the amount expected of them.

The counties oversubscribing or just reaching their subscriptions and the percent of subscriptions to the allotment are as follows:

St. Joe, 204.1; Delaware, 173.3; Dearborn, 150; Union, 135.6; Morgan, 127.8; Clay, 121.8; Shelby, 121.3; Clinton, 120.1; Wayne, 118.8; Johnson, 112.8; Rush, 111.9; Grant, 109; Marion, 108.5; Monroe, 108; Parke, 106.8; Tipton, 106.5; Vigo, 103; Hancock, 101.6; Dake, 101.2; Montgomery, 101; Putnam, 101; Decatur, 100.7; Bartholomew, 100;

NO EXEMPTION BY CLASSES IS LIKELY

Practically Certain That Some Married Men Will be Drafted When Time Comes

MUST PROVE HAVE DEPENDENT

If Married Men Were Exempted Half of Number Registered Would Not be Available

Indications are that married men as a class will not be exempted from war service. Each succeeding dispatch from Washington makes this more certain. The latest report to come from the nation's capital is that the official announcement respecting exemptions under the selective conscription is on President Wilson's desk awaiting his approval. It is regarded as certain that there will be no exemptions by classes except in a few instances as specified by the law.

One Washington dispatch says that an examination of the registration returns, received at the office of the provost marshal-general, shows that if all the married men who registered should be exempted—in other words, if they should be exempted as a class—the men available for service would be reduced possibly to 5,000,000 or 6,000,000. Out of this number would have to come the exemptions provided by law, the exemptions that will necessarily have to be made on account of physical disabilities and such other exemptions as may be decided on.

It is settled, so it was said today, that in the case of married men the policy of the government will decide each case on its merits. This means that married men will not be exempted as a class. Where a married man said on his registration card that he claims exemption by reason of having a wife or wife and child or children dependent on him, his case will be considered first by the local exemption board. If he is not exempted there and is not satisfied with the ruling of that board it will be considered at his request by the appeal exemption board for the federal judicial district in which he lived.

Plainly, it is to be the policy of the government not to exempt married men where the evidence presented shows that their going to the war will not cause their wives to become a burden on other persons. Where it is shown that the wife of the registered man has ample means of her own or has relatives who are amply able to care for her during her absence, the husband will not be exempted, it is indicated.

The appeal boards are now being formed and this step has turned out to be a much larger job than the authorities had regarded it.

Mrs. F. G. Hackleman has received a letter from George Bennett, who enlisted in the navy a few weeks ago and has been at the Great Lakes training station. The funeral services of Gladys Cameron, who died yesterday will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock at the home of her parents in Richland township and burial will take place in the Hope-well cemetery.

HOME MIXED FEEDS.

[National Crop Improvement Service.]
When a man undertakes to mix his own rations, what does he do? He buys straight feeds. Take cottonseed meal as a common example. There are a great many different grades of cottonseed meal, and the man who is looking for a low-priced feed is sure to get a low grade. The demand for cheap feeding ingredients has caused the quality to be gradually whittled down. Consequently the farmer nearly always works with feeds which are poorer than he believes them to be. He does not get adequate state protection because inspectors do not go to a farmer's barn to draw samples, and even if they did, it would be hard to get a complete chain of evidence.

A farmer has no facilities for having his feed analyzed and he doesn't know what he is working with. The analyses of mixed feeds costs about ten cents per ton, and if every farmer will read the various bulletins from the agricultural colleges he will soon know those brands which can be depended upon. There is no doubt that at the present prices of grain any farmer can save money by selling his cereal crops and buying mixed feed. Cornmeal, oil meal and cottonseed meal are all high, but the by-products of barley and rye are all more reasonable in price.

Corn has become costly largely due to the demand for pork and beef. Americans will have those meats at almost any price. This puts corn on a meat basis, and the dairy business will have to fall back on the by-products of grain.

Japan Collects

Considerable interest has been aroused recently because of the large shipments of gold which have been leaving this country for Japan. Some tactless persons expressed the opinion that possibly some of the yellow metal was finding its way to Germany. But the fact is that Japan has developed from a debtor to a creditor nation. Our financiers say that she has been making heavy loans to Russia. She is engaged in making large extensions to manufacturing plants, and in building new ones. She is 'digging in' for the purpose of holding her commercial supremacy in the Pacific when peace comes. All this means that Japanese bankers are finding profitable investments for gold, and as Japan has a large trade balance against us, she is sending her collectors around.

From the first of August, 1914, to March 31, 1917, we imported from Japan $390,000,000 worth of goods, and exported to her $209,000,000 worth of our commodities, leaving a trade balance in her favor of about $180,000,000. During that period exports of gold from this country to Japan totaled about $36,000,000. The $35,000,000 exported to her since the first of the year is chiefly accounted for by April and May withdrawals.

Adverse conditions in our trade with Japan began to make their appearance very shortly after the passage of the present tariff law. During the first ten months operation of that law, before the outbreak of the war, October, 1913, to July 1914, imports increased $12,000,000 compared with the similar period, 1912-13, or from $76,000,000 to $88,000,000 while exports fell off $6,000,000, or from $51,000,000 to $45,000,000. During the last four months of the 1913-14 period exports fell off 53 per cent.

On the other hand our exports to Japan during the war period have shown material increases, but the nature of those sales is such that while they may contribute to our prosperity at a time when we already have all we can do to meet war requirements, they will quite likely militate against our post-war prosperity unless the protective policy is restored to this country.

STOMACH TROUBLE
One dose convinces.
Frank E. Wolcott and other reliable druggists.

Huge sales of war munitions have been made to Japan, a traffic of a gold-plated sort. Large shipments of machinery have gone there which will be used in Japanese mills by low-paid Japanese workmen later to oust American goods. Japan had the foresight to get into our market early with enormous orders for steel plates for ship construction, and the contracts which she has booked with our steel plants now threaten to delay the construction of our steel fleet for war purposes unless an understanding can be arrived at which will postpone the filing of these Japanese orders. And our merchant marine must sooner or later compete with the subsidized Japanese marine.

Get A Clean Record

The State Council of Defense, through its publicity committee chairman, George Ade, has issued a statement calling upon Hoosiers to make sacrifices in the struggle with Germany. "Go Out For a Clean Record," is the way the committee heads the following appeal:

Five years from now, after the greatest war in all history has been fought out, every citizen of the United States will be rated according to the service he rendered during the war.

Certain questions will be asked of him.

They will not be asked out loud, but they will be asked just the same. Every man will have to ask these questions of himself.

These are some of the questions: From the beginning of the war, did you do what you could to help your country?

Did you encourage the boys who enlisted and registered?

Did you subscribe to the liberty loan?

Did you lend a helping hand to the Red Cross?

Did you increase the production of foodstuffs?

Did you help to conserve war-making materials?

When plain duties confronted you, were you a slacker or a sidestepper?

When you were asked for help, according to your means, did you give as much as possible or as little as possible?

The man who can give a straight answer to every one of these questions will not be ashamed of his own society and the neighbors will be proud of him.

The Indiana Council of Defense is calling upon Hoosiers to perform certain duties—to make certain sacrifices.

Your share of the burden must not be laid upon the shoulders of another man, just because he has shown a willing disposition.

Do your "bit."

First, because your country needs you.

Second, because you owe it to yourself and those among whom you live to make a "war record" which you can wear through years to come as a decoration of honor.

Alien citizens of allied nations in this country should not be allowed to remain in safety here while our own men are sent abroad to fight. Put 'em in the army or send 'em home.

The Lord loves a cheerful giver and a hard hitter. Help the Red Cross or enlist—or both.

Keep smiling. That scowl will not keep you out of the trenches.

Senator Lewis advocates hanging for the food hog. Get a rope!

Keep right on digging. Every lick means another bite.

A meeting of the Rush County Ant-dredging association has been called for Saturday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock for the court house assembly room by the president, Ben McFarlan. The members are farmers who own land along the river. Through the agitation of the association, the petition was remonstrated out of court.

The board of review has about completed the work of checking up the assessors' books and next week will review the assessments of the corporations of Rush county. Complaints against assessments so far have been few. Hearings have also been set for next week. The board has completed one-half of its session. By carefully checking the books chances for errors are slight. Several mistakes have been corrected. In one township two mistakes of $1,000 each were found and corrected. The mistakes in both instances were in favor of the property owner.

In some places over the state money this year was assessed at its full value, but here money was taken in at seventy-five percent of its value. This has been the rule here for many years.

WAR FUND $100,000,000

RUSH COUNTY'S QUOTA $10,500

To Be Raised Week of JUNE 18th to JUNE 23rd

The President has appointed a War Council to handle and distribute this fund, the personnel of which guarantees an economic administration. The chairman of the War Council is Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Company of New York, and associated with him are men of the highest business and executive ability who are giving to the Government their time without remuneration of any kind.

This fund guarantees to the American soldiers in this country, and also in Europe, the highest degree of care and protection that skillful surgeons, physicians and nurses can give.

In order to assist the Rush County Chapter in raising $10,500, the business and professional men of Rushville, whose names appear in the accompanying list, have agreed to give to the Red Cross two per cent of their cash business, and one per cent on all accounts collected during the week beginning Monday, June 18, and ending Saturday, June 23.

If you are contemplating any purchases in the near future, make them during this week.

If you owe an account to some business or professional man, whose name appears in the list, pay it during this week.

This generous offer involves no little sacrifice on the part of the merchants and professional men, and the people of Rush County should do their part by making liberal purchases, and in the payment of their accounts.

You will receive full value for your purchases, and at the same time contribute to this great humanitarian cause.

SHOULD SOON RAISE WAR RELIEF ALLOTMENT HERE

soldiers wounded in battle and stricken with disease, for want of prompt and efficient surgical and medical attention. Millions of them die, or become permanently incapacitated through failure of the medical department to render the necessary aid.

To prevent this waste of precious human lives among the American troops is the purpose of this fund of $100,000,000 to be raised next week.

Soon the boys who have volunteered and those enrolled by the draft will be going to the front. There will be included in the ranks some of your sons, your brothers, your fathers, friends and neighbors. Millions of these young men, the very flower of American manhood, are being called to the colors. The Red Cross, the greatest and most efficient organization ever created for the alleviation of human suffering is preparing to minister to the needs of these men, to care for them, to conserve their health and their lives while in foreign lands fighting the battles for democracy.

When the boys who will soon go into the training camps, and later to the trenches, have taken their places in the battle front, this war will become a personal matter to every patriotic citizen of the United States. And when the solicitors for this fund, to be used in providing the American soldiers with the highest degree of care and protection that skillful surgeons, physicians and nurses can give, calls upon you, remember that you are asked to give only a paltry sum of money, while every man who takes his place in the ranks is offering to his country all that he has, even to his life, if necessary.

In a speech at Lincoln, Nebraska, on Thursday, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, in speaking of the importance of the Red Cross in this war said:

"Second only to the army in the work of winning this war comes our Red Cross. Indeed the importance of this work is so great that the President of the United States has set apart next week—from June 18 to 25—as a period for sacrifice and unselfish generosity, a week in which the whole American people will be asked to join in raising funds to enable our Red Cross to perform its vast and indispensable duties in this war.

"The president has also commissioned several of the ablest business men of the country as a war council of the Red Cross, to administer this service on behalf of a stricken world. This war council tells us that a fund of $100,000,000 must be raised at once in order to meet the most urgent needs.

"Here indeed is a summons to every American. It is an enormous sum of money; but what comfort can we take in withholding that or any other sum of money if it is needed to relieve suffering of our own sons or the sons of our allies who are fighting for all that makes life worth living?

"Into our Red Cross without stint should be poured a heartfelt offering of thanksgiving that we are permitted to join in this great service to all mankind. Our soldiers and sailors will do their part without flinching; we may rest assured of their courage and fidelity. The Red Cross offers to us who are not allowed to fight, the opportunity for sacrifice and help."

The Red Cross has a splendid organization in Rush county, detailed plans have been worked out for the canvass for this fund. It will be a test of their patriotism of the people, and a manifestation of their interest in this great humanitarian cause.

There should be no question about the raising of the quota of this fund, apportioned to this county. The response should be prompt and generous.

GOING TO LINTON

Captain and Mrs. Thorpe of the Salvation Army will leave Monday for Linton, Ind., where they will take charge. They have not yet been informed as to who will succeed them here.

TO SPEAK AT LODGE DECORATION HERE

Rolland Turner of Greensburg Will Deliver Address at Joint Lodge Ceremony Sunday, June 24

FOUR LODGES TO TAKE PART

The committee in charge of the joint lodge decoration, one week from Sunday, has secured Rolland Turner, an attorney of Greensburg, for the principal speaker. Mr. Turner is well known here. He is a son of the Rev. J. W. Turner, former pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church. The original program will be followed. The lodges will assemble on the public square and the march to the cemetery will start at two o'clock. The speaking will take place in the cemetery.

Four lodges, the Red Men, Odd Fellows, Modern Woodmen and Knights of Pythias will participate in the service. The Odd Fellows band will head the march. The decoration is usually observed on the first Sunday in June, but was postponed until the last Sunday in the month because of a shortage of flowers.

ARGUMENTS IN TESTS SUIT

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Arguments were made before Superior Judge Thornton today on the suit brought to test the constitutionality of the law passed by the last legislature providing for the calling of a constitutional convention and also questioning that part of the law which permits women to vote for delegates to the convention. The suit was filed by Henry W. Bennett, who was represented by Attorney Charles Martindale. The attorney general's office and the Marion county commissioners were represented by counsel. Abram Simmons of Bluffton, one of the leaders in the fight to have the law passed, was in court representing the woman's side of the case.

The members have until September 1, to complete the work. During the afternoon, a program was carried out. A paper on "Relief of French War Orphans" was read. It takes $36.50 to feed one orphan for one year, and the D. A. R. will endeavor to adopt an orphan. Mrs. Mowers read a paper on the "Birth of the American Flag." Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

A quartet composed of Mrs. Frank Wolcott, Mrs. Clinton Bodine, Mrs. Sam Morgan and Mrs. C. M. George favored the members with several selections. Mrs. Lafarra served a dainty luncheon late in the afternoon, and flags were given as favors.

EVERY PERSON IS ASKED TO DO SHARE

People Who Can't Enlist or Were Not Able to Buy Bond Can Still Do Their Bit

BY HELPING THE RED CROSS

Slogan For Next Week's Campaign is "Give What You Can and The More The Better"

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—If you can't enlist for service in the field. If you haven't felt financially able to purchase a Liberty Bond you can still do your bit toward helping win this great war in which Uncle Sam is about to throw every inch of his manhood, his brains and his muscle—you can lend your support to the American Red Cross.

In the great campaign which is going to be launched June 18, to sweep the State with whirlwind speed for one week, every citizen, be he millionaire or humble wage-earner, will be asked to contribute to the fund of $1,500,000 which will be Hoosierdom's share in the mighty drive for $100,000,000 in America. Men and women of distinction in every part of the country have shouldered the burden of promoting this campaign. In the drive to reach a goal of $1,500,000, the congressional districts will be called upon to contribute to the fund by the following apportionment:

First district, $100,000; Second District, $62,000; Third District, $52,000; Fourth District, $61,000; Fifth District, $106,000; Sixth District, $81,000; Seventh District, $350,000; Eighth District, $91,000; Ninth District, $95,000; Tenth District, $145,000; Eleventh District, $93,000; Twelfth District, $116,000; Thirteenth District, $148,000.

In making this apportionment the Indiana Red Cross leaders based their calculations on the amount pro-rated in the Y. M. C. A. campaigns for army extension work and for the sale of Liberty Bonds. According to the apportionment the per capita for Indianapolis citizens will be about $1.20. For a city approaching 75,000 in population the per capita will be from 75 to 90 cents. A population of 25,000 would be expected to show a per capita donation of 40 to 60 cents. In some sections of the state, not so prosperous, a low per capita of 15 to 20 cents is shown.

The slogan will be "Give what you can and the more the better." At Red Cross headquarters in Indianapolis, a large force under the direction of Director Arthur F. Bentley is working night and day working out the details of the campaign to start in every part of Indiana next Monday morning. Reports to headquarters show that county chapters are planning unusual activities. Red Cross leaders believe that all Hoosierdom will quickly respond to the mightiest appeal ever sent out in the state. The campaign committee of Indiana's Red Cross War Fund, of which Governor Goodrich is chairman, emphasizes the important point that all must give if the state is to do its proportionate share towards the fund. Henry P. Davison, of New York, chairman of the Red Cross War Council, sends out this statement: "Excuses and evasions won't do. The man who has an income of $10,000 a year might as well make up his mind to give half of it to the Red Cross. That's the spirit the situation demands—no less."

Every man, woman and child in Indiana who answers the stirring call of the Red Cross, whatever be the extent of the sum donated, will have that consoling thought that he has done just a little bit toward heartening up our soldier allies across the sea or bringing some small comfort to the American soldier, soon to be in the trenches of Europe.

AMERICANS AT FRONT

London, June 15.—Leverett Bent, of Stoneham, Mass., private in the Canadian Nineteenth Battalion, is about ready to leave the hospital and return to the front but says he would rather return to the United States and enlist under "Old Glory." "However," he remarks "Americans and British are both going to march the same direction—due east, for the Rhine and Berlin."

MEN COMPLETE MONTH OF WORK

Candidates At Fort Harrison Will Soon Be Divided into Various Groups For Special Work

Expected That Only Those Training For Infantry Will be Left in Indiana

Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., June 15.—As men in training for officers here, completed today their first month of work, final arrangements were made for breaking up the camp and dividing the men into various groups for intensive, specialized training during the next two months. At the same time, first applications were received today for the second training camp which will open August 27.

Until today, all the cadets were of the class of service to which they wished to be assigned when they have completed their course. But now the cavalry men training for the will each be divided into separate groups for special training in their particular line of warfare.

Those who wished to join the coast artillery and have qualified for the service, have already gone to Fortress Monroe where they will be given final instructions. Three hundred engineers also have gone to Ft. Leavenworth for their finishing touches before leaving for the front.

There is considerable speculation among the men here as to whether or not other men in training for special branches of service will be sent to various army posts for final work. It is the belief of officers, the cadets training for the field artillery, will leave very soon for some artillery field post—probably Sparta, Wis. The Eighth field artillery of the regular army is in camp at that post at the present with full equipment for service in the field.

The cavalry men will go to Ft. D. A. Russell, Wyo., it is reported. That will leave only those training for the infantry to complete their course here on Aug. 15.

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Turkey run—Indiana's new park—is going to be dedicated this summer if Gov. Goodrich and Richard Lieber, secretary of the state board of forestry have their way. The governor and Mr. Lieber have set two dates for the event but both times it was necessary to postpone the dedication because of violent wind storms breaking down trees in the park. Of course, they wish to have the park looking spick and span when it is dedicated and couldn't hold the exercises on the dates set. They now propose to "slip up" on the weather man and not announce the date of the formal opening but a few days before it is to take place.

Drinking of Water

(BY W. LUCAS, M. D.)

The general conclusions of the latest Medical Scientists prove that drinking plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. For a great many years it was the erroneous opinion of many medical men and the public generally that the habit of drinking water with the food was harmful to digestion. It has now been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of large amounts of water with meals is often beneficial. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water), both with your meals and between meals. If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism, or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take Anuric (double strength) before meals. These Anuric Tablets can be obtained at drug stores.

DELICATE YOUNG GIRLS; MOTHERS!

Goshen, Ind.—"When I was a young girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly. This caused me to become all run-down, weak and nervous. My mother gave me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I have never been troubled since. I am now the mother of four strong healthy children and I have always taken this medicine during expectancy and afterward to give me strength, which it always did. I consider I was very fortunate in knowing of 'Favorite Prescription.'"—Mrs. MARVET GOM, 615 South 11th St.

Unshaken Testimony

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Rushville. No Rushville resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

E. L. Hinkle 915 N. Jackson, St., Rushville, says: "I was on the verge of Bright's disease. Sharp pains in my back radiated to all parts of my body and I was hardly able to walk. I couldn't rest well, owing to the irregular action of my kidneys. I doctored for over a year, but found no relief whatever. Doan's Kidney Pills entirely cured me and made me feel like a different man. The terrible pains left and the action of my kidneys became regular." (Statement given February 26, 1910.)

THE CURE LASTED

BEARS UP WELL UNDER HARD WORK

President Wilson, Despite War Problems, Is "Looking Fit As a Fiddle"—Closely Guarded

SIMPLICITY MARKS ROUTINE

Under Order of Physician He Devotes Certain Part of Each Day to Exercise

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 15.—Simplicity marks the daily routine of President Wilson in these busy war days at the Capitol. There is plenty of work for the chief executive but on orders of his physician the President devotes a certain part of each day to "keeping in trim."

Eleven holes of golf in the morning, a theater two evenings a week, a short automobile ride in the afternoon and an occasional close friend at luncheon or dinner constitutes the recreation that provides a half way relaxation from the strain of executive problems.

President Wilson is a man of unusual concentrative powers. When he considers a legislative measure it is weighed from every possible angle. All else is excluded.

He plays just as hard as he works. This, it has been said, enables him to get more benefit from his limited amount of exercise.

On the links every fibre is concentrated on the immediate drive or putt he is executing. At the theater, the performers either hold his undivided attention or bore him to distraction. A well trained animal act or a rollicking comedian are always rewarded by hearty applause and true ringing laughter from the presidential box in Washington's vaudeville theater.

Appointments with the president are arranged a day in advance. Policemen are stationed at every entrance and only those who have appointments are allowed to enter the White House grounds.

Recently a blood relative of the President, here for a short stay, found it impossible to call at the White House.

Fifteen minutes is the usual time allowed for interviews but it is seldom that they last that long.

The secret service guard has been doubled. When the President goes for a walk they go with him. When he attends the theater they scatter on every floor of the playhouse. The Secret Service automobile follows the President's car at two lengths and the crowd which congregates when the machine stops is closely scrutinized before the President alights.

These precautions are voluntary on the part of the Secret Service men. The President has never requested extra protection. He does not delay stepping from his automobile until the secret service men have sized up the crowd. Not the slightest trace of nervousness on the President's part is ever noticed in public.

The wisdom of not neglecting exercise and recreation shows in his personal appearance. Despite the stress of war problems, the President is "looking fit as a fiddle."

Reo Bearings Are "50% Oversize"

HEREWITH WE SHOW THE BEARINGS—Timken and Hyatt "Quiet" types—that go into Reo the Fifth.

NOT FULL SIZE HOWEVER—space doesn't permit. Cuts show them less than 5% actual size.

YOU KNOW WE SAY we put "50 per cent oversize" in all vital parts of Reos—such as engine, crank shafts, cam shafts, axles, driving shafts, gears, bearings—yes, even the spokes in the wheels.

WELL, HERE'S SOMETHING interesting in that connection.

RECENTLY WE MADE a little investigation—comparisons between the bearings we use in Reo the Fifth and bearings used in other so-called "five-passenger" cars selling for about the same and lower prices.

NOW THERE WASN'T 25 PER CENT difference in price between the lowest and Reo—not 10 per cent in the case of some others. But—

WE DID FIND—and it surprised us too, even as it will astonish you—that Reo bearings were not only "50 per cent oversize"—50 per cent greater in carrying capacity according to the makers' own standards and estimates—but that, in practically every case, the difference was as 2 is to 1, and in others 3 to 1, 4 to 1, 5 to 1, and even 6 to 1—in favor of Reo.

AND THE SAME IS TRUE of the New Reo Six by comparison with the light, flashy, "flimsy" Sixes of which you hear so much nowadays.

IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE they are "light" just compare the size of bearings they use with the great big bearings (Timkens, and Hyatts too, each where best calculated to do the work) you'll find in the $1250 Reo Six.

PRICE IS SUBJECT to increase without notice—but Reo quality never changes. From the first it has been and always will be "The Gold Standard of Values."

The war relief campaign will also be presented to the audience. A meeting under the auspices of the Red Cross will also be held at Glenwood Sunday night following a Children's day exercise. Judge Will M. Sparks will deliver the address. The meeting will be for the purpose of enlisting more members in the Red Cross and to make an appeal for the war relief campaign.

The township chairmen have been called in for the meeting tonight at seven-thirty o'clock at Red Cross headquarters when final organization will be completed for the big "drive" next week to raise Rush county's apportionment. The city will be divided for the ten teams who will canvass in the city. The ten members of the finance committee who are the team captains and the three members each one appointed are all expected to be present tonight to get some idea of how to present the appeal when the canvass starts.

It is expected that subscription blanks and other supplies will be ready for distribution tonight.

ALSO BOUGHT A $100 BOND

The Dr. Gilbert Sunday school class of the Main Street Christian church is doing its "bit" for the country and the allies. The class bought a $100 Liberty bond to help this country and the announcement was made today that the class had decided to be "mother" to a French war orphan for a year.

Under the plan being used by the French relief committee, organizations and individuals are asked to give money sufficient to buy food for the children for one or more years. The Dr. Gilbert class will feed a child for one year. "We thought it best to take the child for one year," said one member of the class, "because at the end of this time our own country may need the assistance." The class is composed of women.

REGISTRATION COST A SMALL SUM HERE

Polling Place—Only Expense

MANY VOLUNTEERS DO WORK

Rush county citizens displayed their patriotism on the day of the registration for the selective service army by donating to the government their services at the polls and also giving free use of the voting places to the government. In only one of the thirty-one precincts of the county was a charge made for the polling place. This was made by a widow, who permitted her own home to be used and she charged the government nominal fee.

Clerk Moore has made his report to the government setting out that all of the work in Rush county was of a volunteer nature pointing out the one exception. Clerk Moore is also indebted to a number of girls and men who gave their time to helping copy the registration cards in his office.

Frankfort—Edgar Morrison who deserted his girl wife several months ago, has enlisted in the army.

Rush County's Roll of Honor

The Daily Republican today publishes on pages eight and nine a complete list of the 1464 young men who enrolled themselves at the military registration on June 5. The names are given by townships and precincts so that you can find your home precinct, the names of the patriotic young men of your neighborhood, without any difficulty.

The space and the immense amount of work in the composition is all donated by the Daily Republican. The names were given to the Republican in typewritten form by precincts by the county conscription board. It was the request of the government that this be done and that the newspapers publish the names free of charge. The record is official.

The names will be published but once. For this reason it behooves you to preserve the printed list for future reference. It is the patriotic duty of every person to read the list carefully, not only of your own precinct, but of other precincts as well. If you know of any slackers—young men of military age whose names do not appear on this roll of honor—you owe it to your country and to your own loved ones, if any had to register, to report these slackers to the county conscription board. The list should be saved as a matter of family pride to be handed down through the generations.

The publication of the official registration list is requested by the government for the purpose of detecting slackers. It is the best method which could be devised of hunting out the men of military age who are trying to escape their duty to their country and their flag. The purpose of the conscription law is to compel universal service and the slacker defeats the intent and spirit of the law. Every person knows some young men in their precinct of military age and they should consult the official list to see if their names are to be found on the roll of honor.

WARNED NOT TO DISCREDIT DRAFT

Men Engaged in Obtaining Enlistments
Cautioned Against Extreme Statements

NO DISTINCTION TO BE SHOWN

Order Will Tend in no Way to Re-
late Efforts Here to Bring
Company B. to War Strength

A warning to men engaged in obtaining enlistments for the regular army and the national guard not to discredit the selective draft in any way has been issued by the war department. The men have been cautioned against making extreme statements in order to make it appear preferable to volunteer rather than be forced into service.

Secretary of War Baker has sent word throughout the service to the effect that the selective draft process was to be regarded as the mode which the national government had decided on as the means of raising its principal armies, and that nothing should be done to make one branch of the service appear more desirable than another, but that emphasis should be placed on the fact that on the men above conscription age devolved the duty of bringing the national guard and regular army up to war strength.

"There are to be no distinctions between the regular army, the national guard and the forces raised by selective draft," said the statement of Secretary Baker. "Every man who wears the uniform of the United States stands on an equal footing."

The possibility that the national army might be differently uniformed had been suggested, but Secretary Baker has promptly put down every effort to make distinctions in the American forces. The armies to be raised by the selective draft will constitute the principal force of the United States in the field at the end of a year, and if the war is prolonged for two years the majority of the fighting men will have been obtained by the selective draft.

The order of the department will in no way tend to relax the effort here to bring Company B to war strength. The officers are confident that enough home pride will be displayed to fill the ranks of the company to the necessary number. The recruiting campaign is to continue as vigorously as ever and Lieut. Dillworth will be here tomorrow to examine recruits.

Lieutenant Dillworth returned to Bedford today after a few days stay in this city.

WALL STREET OVER BILLION

(By United Press.)
Washington, June 15—The rank and file of America today, answered Uncle Sam's request for a war loan of $2,000,000,000 by giving that and probably $30,000,000 more.

Official announcement was made by Secretary McAdoo of the treasury department that the loan was oversubscribed. Robert Wooley, publicity director of the campaign estimated the oversubscriptions might reach a billion dollars. The stream of subscriptions which still poured into the twelve federal reserve districts after the closing hour, are understood to mean that there are four billion dollars where these two billion came from, to be had for the asking.

Wall Street did its bit. The New York district at noon had passed the billion dollar mark.

Apparently 2,000,000 Americans made up this first purse of money for the nation. The government estimates that the average individual subscription was $1,000.

McAdoo in his statement said: "The success of this loan is a genuine triumph for democracy. It is unmistakable expression of America's determination to carry this war for the protection of American rights and the re-establishment of peace and liberty throughout the world to a swift and successful conclusion."

Secretary McAdoo announced that there was not likely to be another bond issue before next fall.

Indications today were that several Boy Scouts of Rushville would win a war medal for their activity in selling Liberty Loan bonds. To get a medal, a Boy Scout has to sell one or more bonds to ten different persons. Three or four boys have already qualified and they are now engaged in helping less successful comrades reach the necessary number of sales. One Boy Scout has secured subscriptions amounting to $2,500.

Up to last night, when a report of the day's work was made, there had been $8,000 worth of bonds sold by the Boy Scouts in Rushville alone. It was predicted today, by the way the Scouts were bringing in subscriptions this morning, that they would easily reach $10,000 today. It will be possible to announce tomorrow what boys won medals.

THEIR MACHINES COLLIDED

Mrs. Rosa Bird of near Arlington this afternoon filed suit against Hilary G. Haydon for $5,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been received in an automobile accident on April 26, 1917 when the Haydon machine and a Ford driven by Mrs. Bird's husband, Thomas P. Bird collided.

Mrs. Bird charges negligence on the part of the defendant, claiming that as the two machines approached he failed to give half of the road and in the collision that resulted she was thrown from the machine. Mrs. Bird claims to have been in bed for four weeks as a result of the accident suffering from injuries to her head, back, spine and other parts of the body. John A. $5,000 ADDED IN COUNTY
*****
The Rush county bankers organization announced this afternoon that $5,000 more had been subscribed to the Liberty Loan here, bringing the total for the county up to $382,550.

Rush county has passed her apportionment in the Liberty Loan campaign. This was made certain today when it was announced by the Seventh Federal Reserve district, in which Rush county is included, that the county had oversubscribed its quota by 11.9 per cent.

The oversubscription was accomplished by the banks and not by popular subscription. The banks have taken the bonds according to the allotment, eight per cent of their resources, and expect to dispose of them among the people of the county. The mere fact that the banks of the county have subscribed for their share does not mean that the people of the county have discharged their obligation, the bankers say.

The purpose of the Liberty Loan campaign, that the bonds be taken up by the people, would be defeated, bankers point out, if they held most of the bonds. Furthermore, it is shown, there will be other bonds issued, to be taken up later and the bankers can not subscribe for all of them because it will be impossible.

According to the announcement in Indianapolis for the sixty-nine counties of the state in the Seventh Federal Reserve district, Rush county's allotment is $337,360 and she has subscribed $377,550, which is an oversubscription of $40,190. Subscriptions of $377,550 were reported by the county bankers organization yesterday and today $20,000 more was added. The extra $50 is not accounted for here.

At the beginning of the campaign the bankers were told by the Seventh Federal Reserve district that the county allotment was $337,360, which was supposed to be eight per cent of the resources of the banks of the county. Later in the campaign other reports were received so that the bankers organization was not exactly certain what was expected of Rush county until it was definitely announced at Indianapolis the apportionment was $337,360 and that Rush county had oversubscribed.

Of the sixty-nine counties in this reserve district, twenty-nine have reached or surpassed their allotments and forty are under the amount expected of them.

The counties oversubscribing or just reaching their subscriptions and the percent of subscriptions to the allotment are as follows:

St. Joe, 204.1; Delaware, 173.3; Dearborn, 150; Union, 135.6; Morgan, 127.8; Clay, 121.8; Shelby, 121.3; Clinton, 120.1; Wayne, 118.8; Johnson, 112.8; Rush, 111.9; Grant, 109; Marion, 108.5; Monroe, 108; Parke, 106.8; Tipton, 106.5; Vigo, 103; Hancock, 101.6; Dakab, 101.2; Montgomery, 101; Putnam, 101; Decatur, 100.7; Bartholomew, 100.7.

County Should Soon Raise Its War Relief Allotment

(By ROBERT E. MANSFIELD)

The captains of the ten teams, composing the finance committee of the Rush County Chapter of the Red Cross, and the three assistants chosen by each of the captains, who will on Monday June 18, enter upon an aggressive campaign for the collection of $10,500.00 of Rush County's quota of the $100,000,000. Red Cross War Fund, will meet this evening at Red Cross headquarters to make final arrangements for the canvass of the city. The committees appointed in the various townships in the county to canvass their respective communities, are also invited to attend the meeting this evening, when final arrangements will be completed for the big drive to begin on Monday.

Rushville will be divided into districts, the teams into units, and a personal canvass will be made in which each individual will be asked to contribute to this fund.

Appreciating the magnitude of the undertaking, the president has appointed a War Council to handle and distribute this fund, the personnel of which guarantees an economic administration. The chairman of the War Council is Henry P. Davison, of J. P. Morgan & Company of New York, and associated with him are men of the highest business and executive ability, who are serving the government without remuneration of any kind.

NO EXEMPTION BY CLASSES IS LIKELY

Practically Certain That Some Married Men Will be Drafted When Time Comes

MUST PROVE HAVE DEPENDENT

If Married Men Were Exempted
Half of Number Registered
Would Not be Available

Indications are that married men as a class will not be exempted from war service. Each succeeding dispatch from Washington makes this more certain. The latest report to come from the nation's capital is that the official announcement respecting exemptions under the selective conscription is on President Wilson's desk awaiting his approval. It is regarded as certain that there will be no exemptions by classes except in a few instances as specified by the law.

One Washington dispatch says that an examination of the registration returns, received at the office of the provost marshal-general, shows that if all the married men who registered should be exempted—in other words, if they should be exempted as a class—the men available for service would be reduced possibly to 5,000,000 or 6,000,000. Out of this number would have to come the exemptions provided by law, the exemptions that will necessarily have to be made on account of physical disabilities and such other exemptions as may be decided on.

It is settled, so it was said today, that in the case of married men the policy of the government will decide each case on its merits. This means that married men will not be exempted as a class. Where a married man said on his registration card that he claims exemption by reason of having a wife or wife and child or children dependent on him, his case will be considered first by the local exemption board. If he is not exempted there and is not satisfied with the ruling of that board it will be considered at his request by the appeal exemption board for the federal judicial district in which he lived.

Plainly, it is to be the policy of the government not to exempt married men where the evidence presented shows that their going to the war will not cause their wives to become a burden on other persons. Where it is shown that the wife of the registered man has ample means of her own or has relatives who are amply able to care for her during her absence, the husband will not be exempted, it is indicated.

The appeal boards are now being formed and this step has turned out to be a much larger job than the authorities had regarded it.

Not for the victor's wreathed crown,
Not for the glory and renown,
But in the hour of grim defeat
That comes upon the battle's heat—
Bless thou my blunted sword!
Make thou me strong, O Lord!
Not for the council's highest seat,
But mingling in the crowded street
To speak with yonder lowly man
As with a brother of thy plan—
Bless thou my humble word!
Make thou me strong, O God!

But if at eve when courage pales
My step shall guide some foot
That falls—

HOME MIXED FEEDS.

[National Crop Improvement Service.]
When a man undertakes to mix his own rations, what does he do? He buys straight feeds. Take cottonseed meal as a common example. There are a great many different grades of cottonseed meal, and the man who is looking for a low-priced feed is sure to get a low grade. The demand for cheap feeding ingredients has caused the quality to be gradually whittled down. Consequently the farmer nearly always works with feeds which are poorer than he believes them to be. He does not get adequate state protection because inspectors do not go to a farmer's barn to draw samples, and even if they did, it would be hard to get a complete chain of evidence.

A farmer has no facilities for having his feed analyzed and he doesn't know what he is working with. The analyses of mixed feeds costs about ten cents per ton, and if every farmer will read the various bulletins from the agricultural colleges he will soon know those brands which can be depended upon. There is no doubt that at the present prices of grain any farmer can save money by selling his cereal crops and buying mixed feed. Cornmeal, oil meal and cottonseed meal are all high, but the by-products of barley and rye are all more reasonable in price.
Corn has become costly largely due to the demand for pork and beef. Americans will have those meats at almost any price. This puts corn on a meat basis, and the dairy business will have to fall back on the by-products of grain.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Two men were seriously hurt and eight others bruised today when a Pennsylvania freight train struck an interurban car bound for Fort Benjamin Harrison. The interurban car was carrying a trailer and the engine struck between the cars, thus probably saving the rest from more serious injury.

AMERICA ALWAYS FIRST

Japan Collects
Considerable interest has been aroused recently because of the large shipments of gold which have been leaving this country for Japan. Some tactless persons expressed the opinion that possibly some of the yellow metal was finding its way to Germany. But the fact is that Japan has developed from a debtor to a creditor nation. Our financiers say that she has been making heavy loans to Russia. She is engaged in making large extensions to manufacturing plants, and in building new ones. She is 'digging in' for the purpose of holding her commercial supremacy in the Pacific when peace comes. All this means that Japanese bankers are finding profitable investments for gold, and as Japan has a large trade balance against us, she is sending her collectors around.

From the first of August, 1914, to March 31, 1917, we imported from Japan $390,000,000 worth of goods, and exported to her $209,000,000 worth of our commodities, leaving a trade balance in her favor of about $180,000,000. During that period exports of gold from this country to Japan totaled about $36,000,000. The $35,000,000 exported to her since the first of the year is chiefly accounted for by April and May withdrawals.
Adverse conditions in our trade with Japan began to make their appearance very shortly after the passage of the present tariff law. During the first ten months operation of that law, before the outbreak of the war, October, 1913, to July 1914, imports increased $12,000,000 compared with the similar period, 1912-13, or from $76,000,000 to $88,000,000 while exports fell off $6,000,000, or from $51,000,000 to $45,000,000. During the last four months of the 1913-14 period exports fell off 53 per cent.
On the other hand our exports to Japan during the war period have shown material increases, but the nature of those sales is such that while they may contribute to our prosperity at a time when we already have all we can do to meet war requirements, they will quite likely militate against our post-war prosperity unless the protective policy is restored to this country.

Huge sales of war munitions have been made to Japan, a traffic of a gold-plated sort. Large shipments of machinery have gone there which will be used in Japanese mills by low-paid Japanese workmen later to oust American goods. Japan had the foresight to get into our market early with enormous orders for steel plates for ship construction, and the contracts which she has booked with our steel plants now threaten to delay the construction of our steel fleet for war purposes unless an understanding can be arrived at which will postpone the filling of these Japanese orders. And our merchant marine must sooner or later compete with the subsidized Japanese marine.

Get A Clean Record
The State Council of Defense, through its publicity committee chairman, George Ade, has issued a statement calling upon Hoosiers to make sacrifices in the struggle with Germany. "Go Out For a Clean Record," is the way the committee heads the following appeal:
Five years from now, after the greatest war in all history has been fought out, every citizen of the United States will be rated according to the service he rendered during the war.
Certain questions will be asked of him.
They will not be asked out loud, but they will be asked just the same. Every man will have to ask these questions of himself.
These are some of the questions:
From the beginning of the war, did you do what you could to help your country?
Did you encourage the boys who enlisted and registered?
Did you subscribe to the liberty loan?
Did you lend a helping hand to the Red Cross?
Did you increase the production of foodstuffs?
Did you help to conserve war-making materials?
When plain duties confronted you, were you a slacker or a sidestepper?
When you were asked for help, according to your means, did you give as much as possible or as little as possible?
The man who can give a straight answer to every one of these questions will not be ashamed of his own society and the neighbors will be proud of him.
The Indiana Council of Defense is calling upon Hoosiers to perform certain duties—to make certain sacrifices.
Your share of the burden must not be laid upon the shoulders of another man, just because he has shown a willing disposition.
Do your "bit."
First, because your country needs you.
Second, because you owe it to yourself and those among whom you live to make a "war record" which you can wear through years to come as a decoration of honor.

Alien citizens of allied nations in this country should not be allowed to remain in safety here while our own men are sent abroad to fight. Put 'em in the army or send 'em home.
The Lord loves a cheerful giver and a hard hitter. Help the Red Cross or enlist—or both.

Keep smiling. That scowl will not keep you out of the trenches.

A meeting of the Rush County Ant-dredging association has been called for Saturday afternoon at one-thirty o'clock for the court house assembly room by the president, Ben McFarlan. The purpose of the meeting is not stated. The association was organized a few years ago when a petition was filed to dredge Flatrock, to protest against such action. The members are farmers who own land along the river. Through the agitation of the association, the petition was remonstrated out of court.

WAR FUND $100,000,000

RUSH COUNTY'S QUOTA $10,500

To Be Raised Week of JUNE 18th to JUNE 23rd

The President has appointed a War Council to handle and distribute this fund, the personnel of which guarantees an economic administration. The chairman of the War Council is Henry P. Davison of J. P. Morgan & Company of New York, and associated with him are men of the highest business and executive ability who are giving to the Government their time without remuneration of any kind.

This fund guarantees to the American soldiers in this country, and also in Europe, the highest degree of care and protection that skillful surgeons, physicians and nurses can give.

In order to assist the Rush County Chapter in raising $10,500, the business and professional men of Rushville, whose names appear in the accompanying list, have agreed to give to the Red Cross two per cent of their cash business, and one per cent on all accounts collected during the week beginning Monday, June 18, and ending Saturday, June 23.

If you are contemplating any purchases in the near future, make them during this week.

If you owe an account to some business or professional man, whose name appears in the list, pay it during this week.

This generous offer involves no little sacrifice on the part of the merchants and professional men, and the people of Rush County should do their part by making liberal purchases, and in the payment of their accounts.

You will receive full value for your purchases, and at the same time contribute to this great humanitarian cause.

SHOULD SOON RAISE WAR RELIEF ALLOTMENT HERE

soldiers wounded in battle and stricken with disease, for want of prompt and efficient surgical and medical attention. Millions of them die, or become permanently incapacitated through failure of the medical department to render the necessary aid.

To prevent this waste of precious human lives among the American troops is the purpose of this fund of $100,000,000 to be raised next week.

Soon the boys who have volunteered and those enrolled by the draft will be going to the front. There will be included in the ranks some of your sons, your brothers, your fathers, friends and neighbors. Millions of these young men, the very flower of American manhood, are being called to the colors. The Red Cross, the greatest and most efficient organization ever created for the alleviation of human suffering is preparing to minister to the needs of these men, to care for them, to conserve their health and their lives while in foreign lands fighting the battles for democracy.

When the boys who will soon go into the training camps, and later to the trenches, have taken their places in the battle front, this war will become a personal matter to every patriotic citizen of the United States. And when the solicitors for this fund, to be used in providing the American soldiers with the highest degree of care and protection that skillful surgeons, physicians and nurses can give, call upon you, remember that you are asked to give only a paltry sum of money, while every man who takes his place in the ranks is offering to his country all that he has, even to his life, if necessary.

In a speech at Lincoln, Nebraska, on Thursday, Col. Theodore Roosevelt, in speaking of the importance of the Red Cross in this war said:

"Second only to the army in the work of winning this war comes our Red Cross. Indeed the importance of this work is so great that the President of the United States has set apart next week—from June 18 to 25—as a period for sacrifice and unselfish generosity, a week in which the whole American people will be asked to join in raising funds to enable our Red Cross to perform its vast and indispensable duties in this war.

"The president has also commissioned several of the ablest business men of the country as a war council of the Red Cross, to administer this service on behalf of a stricken world. This war council tells us that a fund of $100,000,000 must be raised at once in order to meet the most urgent needs.

"Here indeed is a summons to every American. It is an enormous sum of money; but what comfort can we take in withholding that or any other sum of money if it is needed to relieve suffering of our own sons or the sons of our allies who are fighting for all that makes life worth living?

"Into our Red Cross without stint should be poured a heartfelt offering of thanksgiving that we are permitted to join in this great service to all mankind. Our soldiers and sailors will do their part without finching; we may rest assured of their courage and fidelity. The Red Cross offers to us who are not allowed to fight, the opportunity for sacrifice and help."

The Red Cross has a splendid organization in Rush county, detailed plans have been worked out for the canvass for this fund. It will be a test of their patriotism of the people, and a manifestation of their interest in this great humanitarian cause.

There should be no question about the raising of the quota of this fund, apportioned to this county. The response should be prompt and generous.

TO SPEAK AT LODGE DECORATION HERE

FOUR LODGES TO TAKE PART

The committee in charge of the joint lodge decoration, one week from Sunday, has secured Rolland Turner, an attorney of Greensburg, for the principal speaker. Mr. Turner is well known here. He is a son of the Rev. J. W. Turner, former pastor of St. Paul's M. E. church. The original program will be followed. The lodges will assemble on the public square and the march to the cemetery will start at two o'clock. The speaking will take place in the cemetery.

Four lodges, the Red Men, Odd Fellows, Modern Woodmen and Knights of Pythias will participate in the service. The Odd Fellows band will head the march. The decoration is usually observed on the first Sunday in June, but was postponed until the last Sunday in the month because of a shortage of flowers.

ARGUMENTS IN TESTS SUIT

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Arguments were made before Superior Judge Thornton today on the suit brought to test the constitutionality of the law passed by the last legislature providing for the calling of a constitutional convention and also questioning that part of the law which permits women to vote for delegates to the convention. The suit was filed by Henry W. Bennett, who was represented by Attorney Charles Martindale. The attorney general's office and the Marion county commissioners were represented by counsel. Abram Simmons of Bluffton, one of the leaders in the fight to have the law passed, was in court representing the woman's side of the case.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. John Booth and daughter Miss Mildred, of Milroy and Miss Mahle Updike of Westport.

At the regular flag day meeting of the D. A. R. with Mrs. Joe Amos, yesterday afternoon at her home east of the city, the members appointed a committee with Mrs. Mowers as chairman, to buy wool to knit scarfs, sweaters, helmets and wristlets for the soldier boys. The members have until September 1, to complete the work. During the afternoon, a program was carried out. A paper on "Relief of French War Orphans" was read. It takes $36.50 to feed one orphan for one year, and the D. A. R. will endeavor to adopt an orphan. Mrs. Mowers read a paper on the "Birth of the American Flag." Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

At the meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church yesterday afternoon with Mrs. William Lafarra, twenty-six members were in attendance. After the election of officers for the coming year, a program concluded the afternoon, including a paper read by Mrs. J. H. Scholl on the "History of the American Flag." A quartet composed of Mrs. Frank Wolcott, Mrs. Clinton Bodine, Mrs. Sam Morgan and Mrs. C. M. George favored the members with several selections. Mrs. Lafarra served a dainty luncheon late in the afternoon, and flags were given as favors.

One of the pretty weddings of the season was that of Miss Leona Mull daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rue Mull to Mr. Virgil Vickrey son of Mr. and Mrs. Erban Vickrey which was celebrated at 8 o'clock last evening at the home of the bride near Mays, Ind. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Powers of Bentonville. The attendants were Mrs. Rue Miller matron of honor and Rue Miller best man. The little flower girls were Mary Catharine Huddleson and Margaret Arnold. The rooms were attractively arranged with a color scheme of white and green and was carried out in the masses of flowers throughout the rooms and also in the ices and cake.

EVERY PERSON IS ASKED TO DO SHARE

People Who Can't Enlist or Were Not Able to Buy Bond Can Still Do Their Bit

BY HELPING THE RED CROSS

Slogan For Next Week's Campaign is "Give What You Can and The More The Better"

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—If you can't enlist for service in the field. If you haven't felt financially able to purchase a Liberty Bond you can still do your bit toward helping win this great war in which Uncle Sam is about to throw every inch of his manhood, his brains and his muscle—you can lend your support to the American Red Cross.

In the great campaign which is going to be launched June 18, to sweep the State with whirlwind speed for one week, every citizen, be he millionaire or humble wage-earner, will be asked to contribute to the fund of $1,500,000 which will be Hoosierdom's share in the mighty drive for $100,000,000 in America. Men and women of distinction in every part of the country have shouldered the burden of promoting this campaign. In the drive to reach a goal of $1,500,000, the congressional districts will be called upon to contribute to the fund by the following apportionment:

First district, $100,000; Second District, $62,000; Third District, $52,000; Fourth District, $61,000; Fifth District, $106,000; Sixth District, $81,000; Seventh District, $350,000; Eighth District, $91,000; Ninth District, $95,000; Tenth District, $145,000; Eleventh District, $93,000; Twelfth District, $116,000; Thirteenth District, $148,000.

In making this apportionment the Indiana Red Cross leaders based their calculations on the amount pro-rated in the Y. M. C. A. campaigns for army extension work and for the sale of Liberty Bonds. According to the apportionment the per capita for Indianapolis citizens will be about $1.20. For a city approaching 75,000 in population the per capita will be from 75 to 90 cents. A population of 25,000 would be expected to show a per capita donation of 40 to 60 cents. In some sections of the state, not so prosperous, a low per capita of 15 to 20 cents is shown.

The slogan will be "Give what you can and the more the better." At Red Cross headquarters in Indianapolis, a large force under the direction of Director Arthur F. Bentley is working night and day working out the details of the campaign to start in every part of Indiana next Monday morning. Reports to headquarters show that county chapters are planning unusual activities. Red Cross leaders believe that all Hoosierdom will quickly respond to the mightiest appeal ever sent out in the state. The campaign committee of Indiana's Red Cross War Fund, of which Governor Goodrich is chairman, emphasizes the important point that all must give if the state is to do its proportionate share towards the fund. Henry P. Davison, of New York, chairman of the Red Cross War Council, sends out this statement: "Excuses and evasions won't do. The man who has an income of $10,000 a year might as well make up his mind to give half of it to the Red Cross. That's the spirit the situation demands—no less."

Every man, woman and child in Indiana who answers the stirring call of the Red Cross, whatever be the extent of the sum donated, will have that consoling thought that he has done just a little bit toward heartening up our soldier allies across the sea or bringing some small comfort to the American soldier, soon to be in the trenches of Europe.

AMERICANS AT FRONT

London, June 15.—Leverett Bent, of Stoneham, Mass., private in the Canadian Nineteenth Battalion, is about ready to leave the hospital and return to the front but says he would rather return to the United States and enlist under "Old Glory." "However," he remarks, "Americans and British are both going to march the same direction—due east, for the Rhine and Berlin."

MEN COMPLETE MONTH OF WORK

Candidates At Fort Harrison Will Soon Be Divided into Various Groups For Special Work

Expected That Only Those Training For Infantry Will be Left in Indiana

Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Ind., June 15.—As men in training for officers here, completed today their first month of work, final arrangements were made for breaking up the camp and dividing the men into various groups for intensive, specialized training during the next two months. At the same time, first applications were received today for the second training camp which will open August 27.

Until today, all the cadets were of the class of service to which they wished to be assigned when they have completed their course. But now the cavalry men training for the will each be divided into separate groups for special training in their particular line of warfare.

Those who wished to join the coast artillery and have qualified for the service, have already gone to Fortress Monroe where they will be given final instructions. Three hundred engineers also have gone to Ft. Leavenworth for their finishing touches before leaving for the front.

There is considerable speculation among the men here as to whether or not other men in training for special branches of service will be sent to various army posts for final work. It is the belief of officers, the cadets training for the field artillery, will leave very soon for some artillery field post—probably Sparta, Wis. The Eighth field artillery of the regular army is in camp at that post at the present with full equipment for service in the field.

The cavalry men will go to Ft. D. A. Russell, Wyo., it is reported. That will leave only those training for the infantry to complete their course here on Aug. 15.

TODAY'S HOOSIER ODDITY

Indianapolis, Ind., June 15.—Turkey run—Indiana's new park—is going to be dedicated this summer if Gov. Goodrich and Richard Lieber, secretary of the state board of forestry have their way. The governor and Mr. Lieber have set two dates for the event but both times it was necessary to postpone the dedication because of violent wind storms breaking down trees in the park. Of course, they wish to have the park looking spick and span when it is dedicated and couldn't hold the exercises on the dates set. They now propose to "slip up" on the weather man and not announce the date of the formal opening but a few days before it is to take place.

Drinking of Water

(BY W. LUCAS, M. D.)

The general conclusions of the latest Medical Scientists prove that drinking plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. For a great many years it was the erroneous opinion of many medical men and the public generally that the habit of drinking water with the food was harmful to digestion. It has now been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of large amounts of water with meals is often beneficial. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water), both with your meals and between meals. If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism, or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take Anuric (double strength) before meals. These Anuric Tablets can be obtained at drug stores.

DELICATE YOUNG GIRLS; MOTHERS!

Goshen, Ind.—"When I was a young girl just coming into womanhood I suffered greatly. This caused me to become all run-down, weak and nervous. My mother gave me Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I have never been troubled since. I am now the mother of four strong healthy children and I have always taken this medicine during expectancy and afterward to give me strength, which it always did. I consider I was very fortunate in knowing of 'Favorite Prescription.'" Mrs. Mary Goss, 615 South 11th St.

Unshaken Testimony

Time is the test of truth. And Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test in Rushville. No Rushville resident who suffers backache, or annoying urinary ills can remain unconvinced by this twice-told testimony.

E. L. Hinkle 815 N. Jackson, St., Rushville, says: "I was on the verge of Bright's disease. Sharp pains in my back radiated to all parts of my body and I was hardly able to walk. I couldn't rest well, owing to the irregular action of my kidneys. I doctored for over a year, but found no relief whatever. Doan's Kidney Pills entirely cured me and made me feel like a different man. The terrible pains left and the action of my kidneys became regular." (Statement given February 26, 1910.)

THE CURE LASTED

On September 20, 1915, five years later, Mr. Hinkle said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me is still lasting."

BEARS UP WELL UNDER HARD WORK

President Wilson, Despite War Problems, Is "Looking Fit As A Fiddle"—Closely Guarded

SIMPLICITY MARKS ROUTINE

Under Order of Physician He Devotes Certain Part of Each Day to Exercise

(By United Press.)

Washington, June 15.—Simplicity marks the daily routine of President Wilson in these busy war days at the Capitol. There is plenty of work for the chief executive but on orders of his physician the President devotes a certain part of each day to "keeping in trim."

Eleven holes of golf in the morning, a theater two evenings a week, a short automobile ride in the afternoon and an occasional close friend at luncheon or dinner constitutes the recreation that provides a half way relaxation from the strain of executive problems.

President Wilson is a man of unusual concentrative powers. When he considers a legislative measure it is weighed from every possible angle. All else is excluded.

He plays just as hard as he works. This, it has been said, enables him to get more benefit from his limited amount of exercise.

On the links every fibre is concentrated on the immediate drive or putt he is executing. At the theater, the performers either hold his undivided attention or bore him to distraction. A well trained animal act or a rollicking comedian are always rewarded by hearty applause and true ringing laughter from the presidential box in Washington's grand theatre.

Appointments with the president are arranged a day in advance. Policemen are stationed at every entrance and only those who have appointments are allowed to enter the White House grounds.

Recently a blood relative of the President, here for a short stay, found it impossible to call at the White House.

Fifteen minutes is the usual time allowed for interviews but it is seldom that they last that long.

The secret service guard has been doubled. When the President goes for a walk they go with him. When he attends the theater they scatter on every floor of the playhouse. The Secret Service automobile follows the President's car at two lengths and the crowd which congregates when the machine stops is closely scrutinized before the President alights.

These precautions are voluntary on the part of the Secret Service men. The President has never requested extra protection. He does not delay stepping from his automobile until the secret service men have sized up the crowd. Not the slightest trace of nervousness on the President's part is ever noticed in public.

The wisdom of not neglecting exercise and recreation shows in his personal appearance. Despite the stress of war problems, the President is "looking fit as a fiddle."

Reo Bearings Are "50% Oversize"

HEREWITH WE SHOW THE BEARINGS—Timken and Hyatt "Quiet" types—that go into Reo the Fifth.

NOT FULL SIZE HOWEVER—space doesn't permit. Cuts show them less than 5% actual size.

YOU KNOW WE SAY we put "50 per cent oversize" in all vital parts of Reos—such as engine, crank shafts, cam shafts, axles, driving shafts, gears, bearings—yes, even the spokes in the wheels.

WELL, HERE'S SOMETHING interesting in that connection.

RECENTLY WE MADE a little investigation—comparisons between the bearings we use in Reo the Fifth and bearings used in other so-called "five-passenger" cars selling for about the same and lower prices.

NOW THERE WASN'T 25 PER CENT difference in price between the lowest and Reo—not 10 per cent in the case of some others. But—

WE DID FIND—and it surprised us too, even as it will astonish you—that Reo bearings were not only "50 per cent oversize"—50 per cent greater in carrying capacity according to the makers' own standards and estimates—but that, in practically every case, the difference was as 2 is to 1, and in others 3 to 1, 4 to 1, 5 to 1, and even 6 to 1—in favor of Reo.

AND THE SAME IS TRUE of the New Reo Six by comparison with the light, flashy, "flimsy" Sixes of which you hear so much nowadays.

IF YOU DON'T BELIEVE they are "light" just compare the size of bearings they use with the great big bearings (Timkens, and Hyatts too, each where best calculated to do the work) you'll find in the $1250 Reo Six.

PRICE IS SUBJECT to increase without notice—but Reo quality never changes. From the first it has been and always will be "The Gold Standard of Values."
